"Jack's Million-Dollar Bars" Are a Dessert Hit

Garage-sale season arrived in our neighborhood in grand style when a group of energetic teens and their parents recently put on a super sale under a big white tent in the middle of the block to raise money for their year-old, city-wide, co-ed youth rowing team.

Eager passersby snapped up the usual skates, skis and salad bowls, but the surprise attraction was the tempting "bake sale" table. This is where I spotted "Jack's Million-Dollar Bars." At only 75 cents each, how could I resist? One bite of the chocolaty, nutty confection, and I knew I had to have the recipe.

But who was Jack? He's a 16-year-old high-school sophomore, who is not only active on the rowing team but also an enthusiastic cook who loves to dabble in the kitchen.

"I started making family dinners around 8th grade as an excuse to not do homework," he admitted with a grin. "But now I take cooking seriously and enjoy sauteing meats, shellfish and vegetables, and experimenting with spices."

Besides whatever gets Jack into the kitchen, the million-dollar bars could be his real success story. Try them at home, and you'll be happy that I stopped by his bake-sale table to pass this recipe on:

JACK'S MILLION-DOLLAR BARS

Makes 30 bars

Base Ingredients:

— 4 cups rolled oats
— 3/4 cup butter
— 1/4 cup light corn syrup
— 1 cup brown sugar
— 1/4 cup peanut butter
— 1 teaspoon vanilla

Topping Ingredients:

— 1 package (11-ounce) butterscotch chips
— 1 package (12-ounce) semi-sweet chocolate chips
— 1/3 cup peanut butter
— 1 cup salted, dry-roasted peanuts

Preheat oven to 350 F. Grease a 9-by-13-inch baking pan. Measure oats into a large mixing bowl. Set aside.

Melt together the butter, brown sugar, corn syrup, peanut butter and vanilla in a saucepan over low heat. Pour over oatmeal and mix together. Press into the greased pan and bake for 10 minutes, or until lightly brown. Cool for about 30 minutes.

Using the same saucepan, melt butter-scotch chips, chocolate chips and peanut butter over low heat. Stir in peanuts and spread evenly over base. Cool to room temperature. Refrigerate 1 hour, until firm enough to cut neatly into squares. Or leave it on the counter and cut the next day. Jack suggests using a small metal spatula that doesn't bend to cut and remove bars from the pan.

Extra Tip: For a bake sale, set each square on a paper cupcake cup for stability. Wrap with plastic wrap and top with a sticker or label.

ASK ANNIE

LET'S GET COOKING!

by Annie E. Ennis

Cocktail Fare

Dear Annie,

I am planning a cocktail party and was told by a friend to make some heavy hors d'oeuvres. What is a heavy hors d'oeuvre? Also, can you make some suggestions?

—Jane T. from Kokomo, Indiana

Dear Jane,

I would consider a heavy hors d'oeuvre to be one that is filling. I would include "Sweet and Sour Meatballs" and "Spinach Balls" as examples. At the same party I would also include some light bites for those guests who prefer lighter snacks. Try "Drew's Bruschetta" or a condiment plate of sliced peppers, celery, carrots and cucumbers served with a dish of blue cheese or ranch dressing. Here are a few of the recipes. —Annie

SWEET AND SOUR MEATBALLS

- 1 bottle chili sauce (Heinz or similar)
- 1 large can whole cranberry sauce
- 2-3 tablespoons brown sugar
- ½ lemon, juiced

½ large package frozen Armor Original Meatballs

Using a large crockpot or covered pan, mix all of the above ingredients, except for the meatballs. Bring to a medium heat. Add the meatballs. Add an extra sauce mixture, if necessary. Allow to cook over a low to medium heat for at least 1-2 hours. Makes 40 meatballs. Serve with toothpicks.

SPINACH BALLS

- 2 10-oz. pkgs. frozen chopped spinach
- 6 eggs
- 1 grated onion
- 1 ½ C. grated parmesan cheese
- 2 sticks melted butter
- 1 tsp. garlic powder
- ½ tsp. pepper
- ½ tsp. thyme

Cook spinach according to directions. Drain and squeeze out excess water. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Beat eggs slightly in large bowl. Add spinach and remaining ingredients. Mix well. Shape a teaspoon of the mixture into 1 ½ inch balls and arrange on greased cookie sheet. Bake for 20-25 minutes. Serve hot.

DREW'S BRUSCHETTA

- 1 long, skinny French bread loaf
- ½ cup extra virgin olive oil
- ½ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
- ¼ cup granulated garlic
- 2 freshly diced tomatoes
- ¼ cup Italian parsley
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- ½ cup mozzarella cheese—grated

Slice the bread in 1/4-inch pieces (on a slight angle). Swab each piece with olive oil. Sprinkle with garlic and grated Parmesan cheese. Put under the broiler for a few minutes, until lightly toasted. In a bowl, mix the diced tomatoes with a lot of smashed garlic, extra virgin olive oil, Italian parsley and salt and pepper. Sprinkle with grated mozzarella cheese.

Horoscopes for June 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): Ask yourself what’s most important: courage or faith. You’ll need to find the middle ground between the two then move forward. You’re ready to present your most artful self to the world. And that requires both conditions.
Lucky Days: 3 - 10
Lucky Numbers: 11 - 29

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): A strong desire to have your way could rock the boat this month. Rather than hope those around you will change to your liking, ask yourself what you can transform within yourself to attract the kind of peers and community you long for now.
Lucky Days: 14 - 18
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 33

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): Make the most of peace and quiet this month. You are right on the border of a new seven-year cycle that will energize and possibly disrupt many of your tried and true habits and relationships. “The only constant is change,” will become your motto henceforth.
Lucky Days: 23 - 25
Lucky Numbers: 10 - 24

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): Life becomes richer when you continue to investigate and explore. You’ve just entered a one-year cycle that finds you itching to expand your horizons. Go back to school? Learn a different trade? Enter into a new relationship? All are good possibilities during the next 12 months.

Lucky Days: 7 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 8 - 43

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): Your element: Fire, has returned to cosmos and this provides you with a boost of daring and courage to move into the promotional stage with your ongoing projects. Daring involves both audacity and wisdom, and you’ve built a good supply of both this year.
Lucky Days: 8 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 19

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): To what and to whom are you attracted? There are clues and omens coming to you from what you find yourself drawn to and fascinated by. Let that allure act as a kind of teaching, to bring more beauty, harmony and understanding into your life.
Lucky Days: 7 - 8
Lucky Numbers: 33 - 44

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): Disruptions in your relationships can have a debilitating effect on you. This month you need to make some decisions about who and what you want to continue to invest your time and attention toward. Sometimes it is best to release what has run its course, be it person, place or thing.
Lucky Days: 9 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 17

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): Do you have unrealistic expectations? This is the month when you’ll need to clarify what’s realistic, what’s fantasy and what is actually attainable. You’re being guided by a particular muse that is asking you to refine your sensibilities and how you express them.
Lucky Days: 18 - 21
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 12

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): The full Moon on the 11th falls in your sign. This illuminates how revelation and inspiration need to find viable expression via a creative outlet. Projects that involve the workings of your mind. Writing, journaling, communicating are key expressions now.
Lucky Days: 17 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 3 - 43

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): Contemplate what the Chinese philosopher Lao Tzu meant when he said, “As soon as you have made a thought, laugh at it.” The nut of this month’s horoscope for you is: ride lighter in the saddle. Release your grip of seriousness. And then see how things change when you laugh.
Lucky Days: 6 - 16
Lucky Numbers: 44 - 47

AQUARIUS (JAN 21-FEB 19): This summer you’ll most likely be introduced to parts of yourself that will surprise you. Some wonderful, some ugly. Don’t be intimidated by what you discover, life is presenting you with these insights so you can feel the depth (and magic) of being alive. Give thanks.
Lucky Days: 12 - 27
Lucky Numbers: 19 - 50

PISCES (FEB 20-MAR 20): You’re quickly approaching a launch pad that’s been waiting for your arrival for a couple of years now. It’s time to bring your best game, show your best skill set, and then rocket yourself into the bigger world around you. No more hiding out, it’s time to rise and shine.

Thank you for reading The Bingo Bugle!

Soap Box Derby

having Lancaster's race winners qualify to compete at the national level in Akron. That's a legacy worth of commitment that is seldom seen today.

Unlike years past when bingo would be closed for the week, this year bingo will be OPEN for ALL sessions during Race Week.

As we said above, your bingo dollars help with the continued costs of operation, so plan on stopping by and playing an evening session with them!

Bingo is played at the Lancaster Knights of Columbus, located at 343 East Walnut Street in Lancaster.. Doors open at 5:00 p.m. with bingo starting promptly at 6:30 p.m.

The games are great and pricing very fair with a 9-face pack costing $15.00, an 18-face pack for $20.00 and each additional add-on pack going for just $4.00. Instant tickets are good here, too, as they're sure to have all of your favorites available at the game.

If it's the week of your birthday make sure to stop by to play as you can play up to Three Packs FREE! You'll probably need an ID, but hey, free is a pretty good deal, right?!

Make sure to keep up with game on a weekly - even daily - basis by following their Facebook page @ Lancaster Soap Box Derby.

Go to page 14 to check out their ad with a handy map to help you get to the hall. We know that once you stop by and play this game, you'll put it on you calendar as a regular event. And when you do, tell them you heard all about it first in the Bingo Bugle.

West Branch Bingo

The hall is located at 26701 St. Rt. 62 in Beloit and sits about half way between Salem and Alliance. Bingo is played every Thursday night with Doors Open at 4:30 p.m., Jumping Jackpot starts at 6:45 p.m. and Regular Bingo begins at 7:00 p.m.

Package prices are fair with both paper and computers available for play. Paper prices are $16 for your first pack, $19 for two packs and $21 for 3. The computer package is priced at $37. Let them know if it's your birthday and they'll give you $16 off your package.

The bingo format is fun and varied with a $1,000 Coverall Jackpot available every week. Instant tickets are the best with good progressive jackpots there to be won. And, don't worry if you show up hungry -- their kitchen will have you covered!

The facility has ample lighted parking with security and the building is handicapped accessible. The hall is large with plenty of seating, but getting there early will give you a close-up parking spot, best choice of seats and the first shot at dinner. Smart idea, eh?

For their June Special, West Branch Boosters saying "Happy Father's Day" with a Father's Day gift giveaway on Thursday, June 12th! Make Dad's day and treat him to a night of Bingo!

It's a hard working group that's got the best interest our kids in their focus. Stop by and play this game. We know you'll love it.

Here Kitty Kitty Kitty

National Adopt a Cat Month is celebrated in June, says the American Humane Society. It's a time to promote the adoption of cats, especially shelter cats. June also coincides with kitten season, when shelters often have a higher influx of kittens. This month is a reminder to consider the joy of feline companionship and the positive impact of giving a cat a loving home.

Here's why it's important and some tips for adopting a cat:

Reduce Shelter Overcrowding: Adopting a cat helps to alleviate the strain on local animal shelters.

Find a Perfect Match: Adopting allows you to find a cat that fits your lifestyle and personality.

Lifelong Companionship: Cats can be great companions, offering love, comfort, and entertainment.

Tips for Adopting a Cat:
Consider your lifestyle: Make sure you have the time and resources to care for a cat.

Make multiple visits: Spend time with potential cats to get a feel for their personalities.

Spend time together: Give the cat a chance to get used to you and your home.

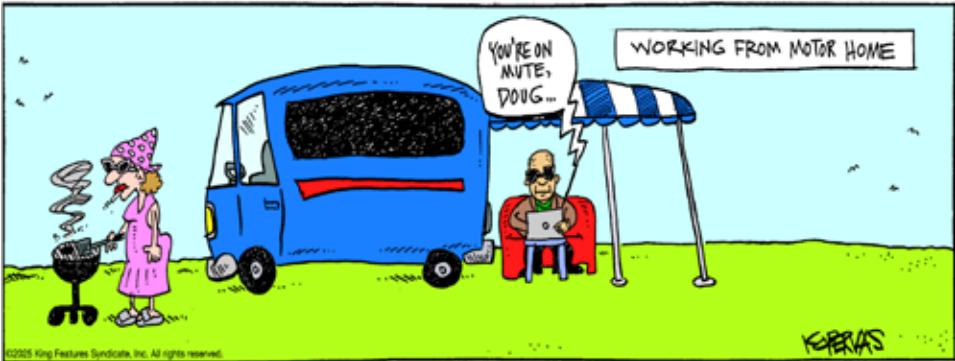

Prepare your home: Make sure your home is cat-friendly with a safe space for your new feline friend.

Consider adopting a pair: If you can, adopting two cats together can provide them with companionship and interaction.

It's been years since I had a cat in the house. My two dogs are very gentle though, and have behaved well around other animals, and I could use a good mouser around here...so maybe? Of course, he (or she) wouldn't have to be a mouser. Another sweet fluffy companion is always welcome.

PICKS OF THE MONTH

Y2K (R) — In his directorial debut, Kyle Mooney (Saturday Night Live) brings back 2000s-style comedy in full force. This film deemed an “apocalyptic sci-fi comedy horror” follows a group of high school students in 1999 who crash a New Year’s Eve party. Expecting a night full of the usual teenage angst and antics, these kids receive the shock of their lives when the power goes out at midnight and technological chaos ensues! As pieces of technology from VCRs to Tamagotchis to microwaves begin to murder the partygoers, our group of unsuspecting high schoolers must fight to make it through the night. Jaeden Martell (Mr. Harrigan’s Phone), Rachel Zegler (The Hunger Games: The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes), and even The Kid LAROI co-star in Y2K. (Max)

Pulse (TV-MA) — Fans of Grey’s Anatomy and medical dramas, look no further than this new series. Taking place in a trauma center in Miami-Dade County, the show centers around Danny Simms, a third-year resident in emergency medicine. When her personal relationship with the chief resident gets him suspended, Danny receives a promotion so that she can prove herself. With a hurricane on its way to Miami and new responsibilities on her shoulders, Danny faces the biggest challenge of her entire career. Luckily, she has the help of a great staff, played by Colin Woodell (The Flight Attendant), Justina Machado (The Horror of Dolores Roach), and Jessie T. Usher (Smile). (Netflix)

The Bondsman (TV-MA) — Kevin Bacon has been enjoying thrilling roles as of late, and his latest role as the titular character in this eight-episode miniseries continues to add to his repertoire in the horror genre. The Bondsman stars Bacon as Fred Herbert, a bounty hunter whose last mission didn’t go too well and resulted in a gruesome death. However, Fred eventually wakes up and realizes that he’s been resurrected... with just a small catch. Lucifer only let Fred escape from hell on the condition that he continues his bounty-hunting job — but this time, he’ll be catching demons. (Amazon Prime Video)

Not Me, Blame Them!

Watch out if someone smiles after things have gone wrong. That person has undoubtedly thought of someone else to take the blame. –Ms. Know-It-All

First things first, so happy Father’s Day, Sunday, June 15th, to all our fathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, grandfathers and anyone who takes on the role of a father. For those like me who have lost their fathers, our hearts grieve as others celebrate with their loved ones. So, if you can spend the day with yours, cherish that time. Go out to dinner, then go play bingo, or teach your loved one to play. It’s time well spent.

If you’re in Laughlin, Nevada, try the bingos there. I have and like them all. They are at Riverside, Edgewater, and Tropicana casinos. Last time I was there, I played at Edgewater, the newest of the three halls. The chairs are low to the floor, but there are cushions available free of charge. I’m short and the added boost is just right for me to comfortably play. Robert and I put our games on computers; no daubing papers. That leaves me free to gobble chips and slurp a beverage while waiting for my computer to flash BINGO! It’s weeks later and I’m still waiting, but my friend playing with us that day bingoed twice. I don’t remember the last time I won at bingo, but then, some days I’m lucky if I can figure out what day it is and be able find the bathroom. The staff at Edgewater bingo is fantastic, friendly, and helpful. Thank you, Kelly, Brandi, Susan, Nicole, Judy, and all the others that I don’t have room to mention. They didn’t promise me I’d win some moolah, but hey, they didn’t promise me a rose garden either. LOL.

Laughlin is opposite Bullhead City with the Colorado River between the two. Don Laughlin bought six acres and a deserted motel in the desert south of Las Vegas for $235,000 in 1964. With a $35,000 down payment, his modest investment grew into the million-dollar Riverside Casino and made Mr. Laughlin a very rich man. He died in 2023 but his legacy lives on. In 1987 he personally paid for construction of the first bridge connecting Laughlin and Bullhead at a cost of $3.5 million. In contrast, a brand-new bridge was built about eight miles away at the other end of Laughlin, opening in 2024, at a cost of $60 million to the federal and local governments. Including Riverside, there are now eight casinos along the river, all with great views, and great bingo.

One of my favorite holidays occurs this month on Friday, June 13th. It’s Blame Someone Else day, allowing me an entire 24-hours’ worth of not accepting blame for any and all of my foibles. My husband would say I do that anyway, not just on June 13th. Now I ask you, why would I confess to multiple sins when I can blame him?

Example: Nan, our pizza is burnt, you didn’t get it out of the oven. Me: You didn’t tell me to start the timer. Or, Nan, hand me our passports to get into Canada. Me: You didn’t tell me to pack them. That last one necessitated our turning around after a four-hour drive and heading home. He was not a happy camper. Until next month, may Lady Luck blow you kisses as you dance out the door with dollars. Win big. Contact: nlpvzw6172@gmail.com.

Arroz con Pollo: The One-Pot Wonder That Feeds Your Family (and Your Wallet!)

Arroz con Pollo translates to “Rice with Chicken” in Spanish, but it’s so much more than that. This dish shows up in almost every culture because it’s cheap, easy to make, feeds a crowd and everyone loves it.

The magic happens when the chicken, rice and veggies simmer together, creating a one-pot wonder of juicy chicken, flavorful rice and vibrant peppers and tomatoes. This is my go-to recipe when chicken thighs go on sale. And if you’re lucky enough to have leftovers, they’re even better the next day. It freezes beautifully, too.

The beauty of Arroz con Pollo is its flexibility. While I swear by bone-in, skin-on chicken thighs for maximum flavor, feel free to swap in any chicken pieces you like — legs, breasts or a combo. Bone-in, skin-on chicken does bring a deeper flavor, but boneless and skinless will work if you’re watching your waistline or just need to make things quicker. Want a little heat? Toss in some serrano or jalapeno peppers with your onions and bell peppers.

You can use any rice you’ve got on hand but, just be aware that the cooking time and liquid amounts may vary. And if you’re a brown rice fan (like me), go ahead and use 3 cups of pre-cooked brown rice when you add the tomatoes. Just skip the broth and water for this one — because, let’s face it, brown rice rules.

Oh, and peas and green olives? Totally optional, but I love how the sweet peas and salty olives balance out the dish. No harm if you leave them out, though. It’s still delicious either way!

ARROZ CON POLLO
Yield: 4-6 servings
Total Time: 50 minutes

- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon dried cumin
- 3-4 pounds chicken thighs, bone-in, skin-on
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 (16 ounce) bag frozen onion and pepper blend, thawed
- 1 1/2 cups long-grain white rice
- 2 cloves garlic, finely minced
- 1 (14.5 ounce) can chicken broth
- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
- 1 (14.5 ounce) can diced tomatoes with chilies
- 1 cup frozen peas, thawed (optional)
- 1/2 cup manzanilla pimiento-stuffed green olives, chopped (optional)

In a small bowl, combine the salt, pepper, garlic and cumin. Pat the chicken thighs dry with paper towels and sprinkle the seasonings evenly over them.

Heat olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cooking in batches if necessary so you don’t crowd the pan, add the chicken, skin side down, into the skillet. Brown chicken on both sides, about 5 minutes per side. Set aside.

Reduce heat to medium. In the same skillet, saute onion and pepper blend until softened. Add salt, rice and garlic; saute until rice is golden and garlic fragrant.

Add chicken broth, tomato sauce, diced tomatoes and 1 cup water. (I rinse out the tomato cans with the cup of water and add it to the pot. It finally happened; I have become my mother.) Stir well.

Return chicken to skillet, skin side up, nestling pieces in rice mixture. Ensure rice is covered with liquid. Cover and simmer on low for 30-35 minutes until rice is tender and chicken reaches 165 F. Add the peas and/or olives and stir. Serve hot.

This one-pot meal stands on its own, but a crisp salad and/or green beans with almonds would make great sides. Next time chicken thighs are on sale, give this frugal family favorite a try — it’s like a culinary hug from your abuelita!

Bingo Abroad

Hi Guy,
You asked people to write in who have played Bingo in other countries. My husband and I played Bingo at two Bingo palaces on the outskirts of London, England. It was tremendous fun! At certain times I almost forgot that I wasn’t back home playing in the USA. It did get tricky with some of the accents and the players were a bit chattier during the games than at home. But we just chalked it up to part of the international experience and just went with it! —Lil O., Massachusetts

Hi Guy,
Last summer my wife and I took a group tour to England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. We discovered several other people in the tour group who were Bingo fans like us. During the England portion of the visit six of us skipped a theater evening and instead went to a big Bingo hall for a few hours of Bingo. We didn’t win any money but definitely had a blast! —RJ, New York

Dear Lil and RJ,
Thanks for taking the time to write in. I have never played Bingo outside of North America and look forward to giving it a try. I’ll bet many folks never even think to seek out Bingo halls during their international travels. Here’s hoping your positive experiences will encourage them to do so. It has definitely encouraged me! —Guy

Wildfire Demolishes Winner's Mansion
A historic Powerball winner has reportedly lost at least one of his multimillion-dollar homes in the recent Los Angeles-area wildfires just a few years after purchasing the properties with his winnings. Edwin Castro won a record-breaking $2.04 billion Powerball jackpot in November 2022. According to multiple outlets, Castro used his nearly billion-dollar winnings after taxes to purchase homes in Malibu, Altadena and the hills of Hollywood. However, according to the Los Angeles Times, his $3.85 million mansion in Malibu, which was purchased in 2023, was among the thousands of structures destroyed in the Palisades Fire. The lottery winner declined an invitation from state officials to speak to reporters at that time but sent a written statement saying he was "shocked and ecstatic" to have won. The New York Post reports that the 31-year-old's real estate portfolio totals about $76 million.

Big Win on the Wrong Ticket
Kelly Lindsay, from Carrollton, Virginia went home with $2 million dollars after being given the wrong lottery ticket at a gas station, according to the Virginia Lottery. The winner told the company that she was not pleased when she was given a Money Blitz ticket, rather than her favorite scratcher game. However, that did not stop her from playing. She reportedly scratched the lottery ticket in the parking lot and learned that she won the top prize. "And I got over not being happy about it!" Lindsay told Virginia Lottery. When redeeming her ticket, she was given the choice of taking the full $2 million prize in yearly payments over 30 years or a one-time payment of $1,250,000 pre-taxes. She opted for the cash option.

Texas Lottery in Hot Water
The executive director of the Texas Lottery Commission has resigned, the latest shake-up at the state's retail gambling enterprise amid multiple investigations into jackpots in 2023 and earlier this year totaling nearly $200 million and calls from some lawmakers to shut it down. The agency faces at least two investigations ordered by Gov. Greg Abbott and state Attorney General Ken Paxton into the integrity of the lottery prizes, and how the state handled the introduction of courier companies that buy and send tickets on behalf of customers online. The companies and lottery officials have denied wrongdoing. But Texas state lawmakers are considering forcing several changes, ranging from a legal ban on sales through courier companies to shutting down the agency by taking away all of its funding. Two of the biggest jackpots in agency history prompted flares of scrutiny and criticism from media, lawmakers and state officials who question whether they were fairly won and if courier companies should be allowed. First, a $95 million jackpot in 2023 was awarded when the winners bought nearly every possible number combination—more than 25 million of them. In February, an $83 million ticket was won with a ticket purchased at a courier store. The chain that operates the store has locations in six states. State law allows Texas jackpots to be claimed anonymously, and the April 2023 jackpot was collected two months later in the form of a one-time payment of $57.8 million to a company called Rook TX. The payment for the February jackpot, however, is on hold pending the state investigations. An attorney for a woman who claims to hold the winning ticket has said it was legally purchased among a group of 10 she bought through the courier Jacketpocket.

The Bride Went to Bingo

Our cousin Connie finally decided to marry her longtime companion, Kevin. She invited us to participate in the festivities and to make everything super fun, invited twelve of us to play Bingo the night before the wedding. We went to a casino where Connie had made arrangements for a special table. The casino management put little wedding bells on the table, making us all feel very well taken care of indeed.

We were a raucous, happy group and I got a chance to ask Connie what had made her finally decide to marry the man. “Financial reasons chiefly,” was her reply, “but also because he decided to take his health more seriously, and started running again, which took off the forty pounds he’d been complaining about for years.”

“He does look great,” I said.

“The running has been so good for him and he looks so fit, especially in his wedding tuxedo. I am really proud of him.”

Connie looked fondly at her intended and then we were into our Bingo games.

We turned out to be a very lucky table. Kate won the third game which was a double X and pretty difficult, but she handles those difficult games with ease and announced the winnings would go to the bride and groom as a wedding gift. The next winner at our table followed suit and a sizeable fund soon built up.

Connie was embarrassed as she said she hadn’t planned the evening to be a moneymaker for her. At intermission, she treated everyone to drinks and snacks.

We played happily on and then came the big surprise of the evening. The caller announced the next game would be the “wedding cake” in honor of our bride and groom. It was a special treat and consisted of the top N, the second I, N, and G, the third B, I, N, G, and O and the bottom two Ns. That made a pretty strange looking wedding cake—but was fun and difficult. I noticed Kate making tiny dots in all the needed squares and thought that was a really good idea. Most of the others at our table spent all their time figuring out if the called number was needed.

Kevin was lucky with this game and before long was on, although he said he wasn’t sure if he was on or not. Then he won and we all cheered like fools. He rose and bowed to us all and said, “This is my lucky time. I win a big jackpot and a lovely bride all in one fell swoop.”

We laughed and cheered and ended the evening on a very happy note.

The next day was beautiful and bright and a perfect day for a wedding. We went early to the church to be ready to help wherever needed, but Connie was well organized and had everything in hand. So, we reminisced about our childhood when we were all close and played together.

“I remember those games of ‘run sheep run,’” said Connie fondly. “I could never keep up with the rest of you, but I made a good try.”

“Now it’s time to get you married,” I said, ushering them all toward the door.

I went first as her attendant, then Kate, who walked her down the aisle to the traditional music. She looked lovely in beige lace with beige lace pumps and her bouquet trailed nearly to the floor.

She reached Kevin at the altar and the minister read the regular service. They had written their own vows and they were lovely and sweet and made me want to cry for all the years they have been together.

At last the minister said, “I now pronounce you man and wife. You may kiss your bride.”

Kevin leaned in to kiss her and someone from the other side of the room shouted, “Bingo!”

* Yard sale, tag sale, garage sale... whatever you call it, if you do it right, you can walk away with a decluttered home and a nifty bit of cash, too. Here’s my tip: Advertise, advertise, advertise — on local message boards and websites, as well as using signs. The more people you drive to your sale, the more you are likely to sell.

* “When you put jewelry out at a garage sale, you can display it for better results. Use a window screen for paired earrings, or maybe a tie rack for necklaces. I sell a lot of costume stuff in my sales. Kids especially like it.” — R.G. in Mississippi

* One way to organize a tag sale is to group items in bins by price. Or have a dollar table. If you have lots of clothes, you might price it by the piece and have good price breaks for people who buy lots of pieces. — M.H. in Alabama

* Not sure how to price your items for resale? The rule for yard sales is as follows: For items that are new, still with tags or in original, unopened packaging, price it as 50% off retail. For items that are in good working condition, with all parts and accessories, mark it 30% of what you paid. Other items should be marked down to 20% of what you paid. Be honest with yourself. If something is just usable, but not really worth a buck, put it in a “free” bin. Your customers will be grateful, and you might make an additional sale.

* Be sure to have plastic bags on hand. Boxes and newspaper are handy if you are selling any dishes or glassware, too.

Car Maintenance

According to research conducted by automotive market research firm IMR Inc., one out of three consumers who put off routine vehicle maintenance do so because they cannot find a convenient time.

“There is an old adage that if you take care of your car, your car will take care of you,” said Rich White, executive director of the nonprofit Car Care Council. “Making time to perform routine auto care not only ensures a safer, more dependable vehicle, but car owners can preserve the trade-in value and save money by addressing small issues before they become more complicated, expensive repairs.”

The most common maintenance procedures to keep a car operating safely and reliably while maintaining its long-term value involve checking the oil, filters and fluids, the belts and hoses, brakes, tires and air-conditioning. An annual tune-up and wheel alignment are also good ideas.

To make it easier for car owners to remember to include auto care in their busy schedules, the Car Care Council offers a free custom service schedule and e-mail reminder service. This simple-to-use online resource can be personalized to help make auto care more convenient and economical.

In addition, the council’s popular “Car Care Guide” for motorists is available at no charge, electronically or by printed copy, in English and Spanish. The guide covers major services, component groups within the vehicle, service interval recommendations and much more.

The council is the source of information for the “Be Car Care Aware” consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance and repair to consumers.

For the latest car care news, visit the council’s online media room at <http://media.carcare.org>. To order a free copy of the popular “Car Care Guide,” visit the consumer education website at www.carcare.org.

Dealer Questions

I receive many questions from blackjack players; some involve interactions with blackjack dealers. Here are a few that you might find interesting and educational. Should you tip a blackjack dealer, and if so, how much?

There isn't any rule that says you must tip a blackjack dealer, just like there are no rules that say you must tip a waiter or taxi driver. However, let's be realistic, we all know that many hard-working folks who work in the service industry have a low base salary and that they depend upon tips from customers to make ends meet. When I go to a restaurant, whether I tip my server and how much depends upon the service I get. It should be the same for blackjack dealers.

Unfortunately, I've run into some surly blackjack dealers over my 40-year playing career. You know the type...gruff, disagreeable, irritable, grumpy, unhelpful, never smiling, and making you feel uncomfortable when you play. My tip for them is nada. I have even been known to tell them specifically what they are doing wrong and to correct it. If a dealer is extremely obnoxious (I've actually had one call me an asshole for not leaving a tip), then I will seek out the pit boss and tell them about the discourteous dealer. On the other hand, if a dealer has been friendly, courteous, and helpful, I will leave a tip. How much? Because I play with an advantage, I know how much my theoretical hourly profit is and I usually tip no more than 25% of this. (I also wait until the count is in my favor before making a bet for the dealer.) If you are a basic strategy player and you want to tip a friendly dealer, my recommendation is to tip a few dollars if you are a $5 or $10 bettor, and tip $5 if you are a $25 bettor. (See next question.)

Does it make a difference how you tip the dealer? I'm asking because sometimes I see players make a tip for the dealer on their hand while others just leave some chips for the dealer after they are done playing.

I think it's important that you let the dealer know early in your session that if they are friendly and helpful that you will be tipping them. Therefore, if they're friendly from the get-go, I'd make a bet for them on your hand (now they know that if they continue the behavior you expect, they will probably be rewarded with more tips). However, I don't recommend that you place the chip(s) you want to bet for the dealer on the outside of your betting spot (most players do this). Instead, you should place the chip(s) you want to bet for the dealer on top of your chips and inside the betting circle. The reason is if you place the chip(s) outside of the betting circle, you have no control over them. If the hand wins, the dealer will keep the chip(s) you bet for her plus the corresponding winning chips. If you place the chip(s) on top of your chips inside the betting circle, you still own them, meaning the dealer only gets to keep the winning chip(s) or whatever you choose to give to them. Usually, I let the chip(s) that I bet for the dealer ride on the next hand. If I win a few hands in a row, it gives the perception that I'm a big tipper. In addition, by placing the chip(s) you bet for the dealer on top of your wagered chip(s), the additional amount will count toward your rating.

"The dealer made a dealing mistake, which caused me to lose. Their supervisor wouldn't correct the mistake. I felt cheated and I'll never play at that casino again."

Normally, if a dealer makes an error in dealing the cards or in a payoff, they are supposed to bring it to the attention of their supervisor. The floor supervisor has the responsibility to correct the mistake. In most cases, the supervisor will give the benefit to the players because they want to maintain them as customers. However, if you believe that the supervisor hasn't corrected the mistake to your satisfaction, you should tell the supervisor that you would like to speak to the pit (or shift) boss. I would plead your case at this level, including asking the pit or shift supervisors to review the tapes of the table so they can see the mistake made by the dealer.

YOU ASK THE SENIOR QUESTION
~ WE FIND THE SAVVY ANSWER
by JIM MILLER

Protect Yourself from Identity Theft

Dear Savvy Senior,
I am very concerned about Elon Musk and the so-called DOGE team getting access to my Social Security number and personal financial information through their government office raids. What can I personally do to help protect myself from this identity theft mess?
—Worried Senior

Dear Worried,
It's a great question! I've been hearing from many older readers around the country that are deeply troubled by the news that the Elon Musk-led Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) has been granted access to millions of Americans' Social Security records that include highly sensitive personal information.

The major concern among data privacy experts is what could happen if your Social Security number, bank account information or tax records somehow gets leaked or breeched in all the data shuffling. If your information gets in the wrong hands it could lead to identity theft, which means scammers could use your personal information to open credit card accounts, bank accounts, telephone service accounts, and make major purchases—all in your name.
If you're concerned about the privacy of your personal information, the best way to protect yourself is to put a "fraud alert," or better yet a "credit freeze" on your credit file.
A fraud alert is a notification placed on your credit report that signals to potential creditors to take extra steps to verify your identity before extending credit in your name. While a credit freeze completely restricts access to your credit report, essentially preventing anyone from opening new accounts in your name without your explicit authorization.
A credit freeze provides much stronger protection than a fraud alert, but there is a drawback. When you freeze your credit, you won't be able to open new credit cards or get a new loan while the freeze in place. It does not, however, prevent you from using the credit cards you already have open.
If you do need to get a new credit card or some type of loan, you can always lift the freeze on your account until you get the card or loan approved, and then refreeze it. You'll also be happy to know that a credit freeze is completely free to put in place and lift, as are fraud alerts. And neither action will affect your credit score.

FRAUD ALERT SET-UP
To set up a fraud alert, you'll need to contact one of the three major credit reporting bureaus – Equifax, Experian and TransUnion – either by phone, online or by mail. You only need to contact one of these agencies, and they will notify the other two. Here's the phone and website contact information for each of the three bureaus.
* Equifax: 800-685-1111 or Equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services
* Experian: 888-397-3742 or Experian.com/help
* TransUnion: 888-909-8872 or TransUnion.com/credit-help
If you haven't been a victim of identity theft, you'll need to set up an "initial fraud alert," which lasts for one year, although you can renew it for additional one-year periods.
CREDIT FREEZE SET-UP
To set up a credit freeze you'll need to contact each of the three previously listed credit reporting bureaus – Equifax, Experian and TransUnion. A credit freeze lasts until you unfreeze it.
But remember, before you apply for new credit card or loan, you'll need to temporarily lift the security freeze by following the procedures from each of the credit reporting bureaus where you placed the freeze.
If, however, you don't want to set up a fraud alert or credit freeze, you can still keep an eye on your credit file by reviewing your credit report regularly. You can get a free credit report each week from Equifax, Experian and TransUnion by going to AnnualCreditReport.com.
